

HIV VACCINE AWARENESS DAY ACTIVITIES
Community Organizations Conducting Outreach Activities
May 18, 2004

The organizations listed below will conduct community outreach activities to commemorate the seventh annual HIV Vaccine Awareness Day on May 18th. The activities will educate specific populations about the importance of developing an HIV vaccine to end the AIDS pandemic and raise awareness about ways in which people can support HIV vaccine research efforts.

If you would like further information about HIV Vaccine Awareness Day or an organization's community outreach activities, you are welcome to contact the organization directly. Both contact information and a brief description of the organization's community outreach activities are provided.

On May 18th the HIV Vaccine Trials Network's (HVTN) various HIV Vaccine Trial Units (HVTU) will be observing HIV Vaccine Awareness Day with educational activities and opportunities across the nation. For more information, please contact the HVTU in your area. These HVTUs are listed on the attached document.
